Luke 11.1-13 (NIV)

One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

He said to them, “When you pray, say:
“Father,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come.

Give us each day our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
for we also forgive everyone who sins
against us.
And lead us not into temptation.”

How do we pray “Give us each day
our daily bread”?

We get into the middle of Father's will

- by having fellowship with Jesus

Hebrews 10.22 (NirV)

So let us come near to God with an honest and true heart. Let us come near with a faith that is sure and strong.

Galatians 5.16 (NIV11)

So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.

Galatians 5.25 (NIV11)

Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit.

- by having fellowship with each other

Hebrews 10.24-25 (NIV11)

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another...

1John 1.7 (NIV11)

If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

- by having a commitment to give

2Corinthians 9.6-8 (NLT)

Remember this - a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure.

“For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.”

And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others.

We choose to believe that Father wants to give us (and others) his success

2Corinthians 1.20 (NIV11)

For no matter how many promises
God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen”
is spoken by us to the glory of God.

Luke 6.38 (NIV11)

“Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

Philippians 4.19 (NLT)

And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.

It's about choosing to depend on Father and getting to the place where he can provide for us

We are specific in our requests

Luke 11.3 (NIV11)

“Give us each day our daily bread.”

Matthew 6.33 (NIV11)

“Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

Philippians 4.6-7 (NLT)

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

Nehemiah 1.11 (NIV11)

“Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favour in the presence of this man.”

Romans 15.4 (NIV11)

For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

We don't give up asking (until our prayer is answered or Father says 'no')

Genesis 32.24-26 (NLT)

This left Jacob all alone in the camp, and a man came and wrestled with him until the dawn began to break. When the man saw that he would not win the match, he touched Jacob's hip and wrenched it out of its socket. Then the man said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking!" But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

Luke 11.9-10 (NLT)

“And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.”
